

W

hat interventions in the semi year program me 2021!. In nutshell, they included children advocacy and protection, students books reading enhancement, women economic earnings and children economic engagement in home activities in Nzuguni, Ihumwa and Mtumba wards in Dodoma city.

Youth Empowerment

CEDC imparted students reading books behavior spirit to 5 Secondary schools namely Nzuguni , Mtumba , Ihumwa Ipala, and Kikombo . Staff trained them the contents in the book titled "THE LITTLE BOOK OF WISDOM aiming to add value in their studies and maturity for mastering upcoming future stressful lives.

Photo: CEDC staff with Nzuguni Secondary school students after books reading training, holding it. The Little Book of Wisdom

Combating violence

CEDC continued with children advocacy clubs strengthening in six primary schools namely Nzuguni B, Nzuguni A (Nzuguni ward), Ihumwa primary school (Ihumwa ward), Kiterela primary school (Nzuguni ward), Mahomanyika primary school (Nzuguni ward) and Mtumba primary school (Mtumba ward). Children are taught of their rights understanding especially on handling allegation management procedures when abuses, exploitation and rights violation happen.

Hereunder is the campaign photo so named "WE SAY NO TO CHILD ABUSE". Children raising voice to communities on needy rights for their wellbeing as hereunder photo shows;

Photo: Right to Play: Nzuguni A primary school students holding posters of child rights during the campaign in Nzuguni ward

Trained parents of the children engaged in home economic activities for upbringing

Women empowerment

Trained 12 women economic groups on the financial intelligence in their businesses. They were taught on projects running and book keeping by CEDC staff to discover losses or profits within the course of entrepreneurship lifetime. See the photo hereunder as:

Photo right: Faraja economic group with CEDC Staff on financial intelligence supportive monitoring visit in Nzuguni B Mtaa, Nzuguni ward, Dodoma city rural areas.

